1. Welcome!

Hillside is a children’s home with locked windows and doors and a fence. You might not want to be here, but Hillside staff will do their best to look after you and make sure you have all the help you need and want. You’ll find out lots about Hillside in this book, but you can ask the staff anything else you want to know. The staff are here for you to talk about anything that is worrying or upsetting you, or about anything you are not sure about — just ask!

Young people living at Hillside have designed and put together this book, they have included things that they think will be useful for you to know at the beginning of your stay.

2. Why Are You Here?

People come to Hillside for different reasons. Usually, it is because of one of these laws: Section 25, Children’s Act 1989, is a Civil Law and means that you are here because you may have placed yourself or others at risk, or you may have run away from another children’s home (Welfare). On the other hand, Criminal Law might mean you are here because you have been charged or convicted of a criminal offence (Crime).

If you are unsure, talk to a member of staff.
3. What Can You Do About It?

If you think, “I SHOULDN’T BE HERE!”...

- Talk to your KEYWORKER and tell them your worries.
- Talk to your SOCIAL WORKER.
- Or, talk to your YOT WORKER (YOUTH JUSTICE).
- You could also contact your SOLICITOR.

You can get help from Hillside staff to get answers from these people.

4. What Is It Like Here?

Buildings

You will spend most of your time in your living unit – Nedd, Tawe, or Afan – with up to 5 other young people and the unit staff. This is your place to chill out, but staff are always around. Each unit has bedrooms, a living area, dining area, its own garden, laundry room, and a quiet room. The units are joined up by the central core (a round high-ceilinged room in the middle of the building), which also joins on to the classrooms. There is also a gym, education unit, and astroturf area.

Security

Occasionally, the staff will need to search your room. This is to make sure that everyone is living by the same rules and are aware of the list of things that you are not allowed to have, but also to ensure that you are keeping it tidy. If anyone is found to have any forbidden items they will be sanctioned (see the ‘Rules’ section).
My Space

There are six bedroom levels. There is a bedroom awards system which means that you can move up or down levels depending on your behaviour. What you are allowed in your room depends on the level bedroom you have.

Clothes

You wear your own clothes at Hillside. Your keyworker will buy clothes for you when you need new ones, or they can get you a clothing grant. You can also ask your family or friends to bring you clothes in an emergency. Look at the bit in this book about possessions to see what you can have. School uniform is provided for you to wear when you’re in education.

Food

Some people think the food is lovely...others think that it isn’t. If you have any food allergies, or need special food, let us know.
I've been here six months and I've put on a stone - that's good because I was anorexic before!

The cook comes onto the unit to talk to us about the menu and the food.

You get a take away every three weeks but you have to all agree on what to get and you have to pay for it out of your own money.

You can help yourself to fruit during the day, it's good but there is not enough choice.

Some of the cooks cook well, curries are good but a bit watery.

Rice pudding and custard - all the desserts are alright. Yoghurts are alright.

There should be more options.

Cooked dinners are best, with meat, potatoes and veg.

Could be better...

You get orange juice every morning but sometimes it runs out.

But Don't Forget to Make Up Your Own Mind!
Possessions

To have more possessions in your bedroom you have to move up the bedroom levels (look at the bit in this booklet about rewards and sanctions).

Clothes you are allowed:

- Three sets of clothing (i.e. jeans and tracksuit)
- Three t-shirts
- Three sweatshirts
- As much underwear as you want!!

Other stuff:

- T.V.

Hillside is also an education unit for young people aged 11-17 years old. You may have missed lots of school for many reasons, SOOOO...everybody will be doing educational activities 5 days a week (except for school holidays).

The staff check what you’ve done and what level you are at, and find how they can help you build skills, confidence and qualifications.

Subjects on offer:

- Maths

- Music
- Science
- Art
- Design and Technology
- Sport
- Humanities (Geography, History, RE)
- PSE (sex education, personal hygiene, drug education)

There are six classrooms and a gym (all shown on the map). The classes have 3-5 young people about the same level as you, with lots of support from teachers. You can take exams, and if you are over 16, you can do prevocational school work (e.g. Mechanics).

Staff want your education to be real and useful, and you will have a KEY TUTOR who will run tutorials once a week with two other young people. Education starts at 9.00 am and there are seven 45 minute sessions. There is one break for 30 minutes mid morning, and one hour for lunch followed by a further two sessions.

You can get rewards in the education unit - POINTS MAKE PRIZES! You can get up to 8 points per lesson, and each point is worth 1p of Argos/Woolworth vouchers.

There is also a chance to do things at evenings, weekends and holidays, including:

Meetings

As a resident of Hillside, there are certain meetings that you need to take part in.

Statutory Reviews
These are meetings that the law says you have to have

Planning Meeting
This is held within the first week

Review Meetings
These are held monthly

Your keyworker will help you to prepare for these meetings and fill in your “CYP”. These are your meetings. It is very important that you attend and have your say.

There are likely to be other young people on the unit being disruptive. Remember, other young people have problems too.

- Bullying...just say no!
- Treat others as you would like to be treated yourself.
- Racist and sexist comments, behaviour or literature are not O.K.
- We want people to show respect and get respect in return.

Remember: Hillside is not a prison - it is a Secure Children’s Home.

Outings?

EXTERNAL MOBILITY: This means when and how you can go out of Hillside while you are living here. It can be different for each person and will depend on your own circumstances, so this will be explained to you. A doctor and a dentist come to Hillside, but you can also go to the hospital for specialist or emergency treatment. Other types of outings may happen towards the end of your stay. Talk to your key worker about this.
Rules and Sanctions

There are important rules that you must be aware of as a resident of Hillside. These rules refer to such things as items which you are not allowed to own, ways in which you are not permitted to behave, and some of the consequences (sanctions) which may result from any wrongdoing. However, there is also a positive side to the rules, and you can receive rewards for good behaviour.

However, rather than simply give you a list of all the Do’s and Don’t’s, we thought it would be better if you found out on your own! Simply ask around the staff and other young people and you’ll soon find out. As you do this, fill in the spaces below with what you find out.

Things I Can’t Do:  Things I Get Rewarded For:

Banned Items:  Items I Can Own Or Buy:
Having My Say

There are lots of ways to get your voice heard at Hillside:

- You can always talk to your keyworker.
- Young people get together every Monday morning to talk about how things are going.

However, if you want or need to talk to someone who is completely separate from Hillside, you can talk to an independent visitor from the NSPCC. He/she visits Hillside every two weeks to check everything is going OK. You can meet privately with him/her to talk about anything that you need his/her help with. You can ask a member of staff to arrange this for you. You can also phone him/her on 01443 400747, or you can write to him/her at:

QUESTIONS...?

I would like people to be friendly and ask names.

The young people here are brilliant.

It’s not as bad as you think it’s going to be!

If you don’t do your chores you don’t get TV or radio on in your room in the evening.

Find out when your Laundry day is and what your chores are.

It’s not meant to be a hard time, it’s meant to be secure but not a punishment.

You can wear your jewellery if staff say it is O.K.— but usually just studs and watches.

There are no cells, there are only 18 people.

Learn the rules!

I wanted to know the basic rules.

Do as you’re told.

You get your own room and your own toilet and shower.

Remember that you’ve got to live with the people here.

You are not allowed to smoke.

Up for breakfast by 8:30 on weekdays 9:30 on weekends.

You get loads of support.

What did you need to know in your first week?
Every child in nearly every county in the world is protected under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.
